MEMORIAL TO STEVE

Those are the main conclusions of the first comprehensive review of the war. It was published yesterday by the International Committee for the Study of European Questions, and was compiled from data supplied by the Allied Governments.

Here, in brief, is the story of the war that Hitler was "

"won":

Gramany's population has increased by 7,500,000 to roughly 72,000,000. In addition, another 2,000,000 prisoners are to go back.

Germany's war losses totalled 3,000,000, but the losses of Allied countries, including military casualties, murder of civilians and deaths from under-nourishment, amounted to 15,000,000.
